Khadijah C Davis

Student ID:

Dear Khadijah,

Congratulations on your admission to the University of Richmond! This notification includes your financial aid offer in response to the financial aid application you submitted. We understand the financial aid process can be complicated, and we are here to help as you navigate the process.

Federal Work-Study (FWS) funds may be available to eligible law students who are interested in working on campus during the school year. Adding FWS eligibility to your financial aid offer will reduce your eligibility for student loans. If you are interested in FWS funding for the 2025-26 academic year, contact the Office of Financial Aid to determine your eligibility and funding availability.

More details about the terms and conditions of your offer, types of financial aid, and other resources to assist with educational expenses can be found at Understanding Your Financial Aid Offer (<https://financialaid.richmond.edu/forms/PDFs/consinfolaw2526.pdf>). Please review this information carefully. If you have questions, contact the Office of Financial Aid at (804) 289-8438 or finaid@richmond.edu. For questions about law merit scholarships, contact the Law Admissions Office at (804) 289-8189 or lawadmissions@richmond.edu.

Sincerely,

William Bryan
Associate Vice President of Financial Aid

This offer reflects the estimated Cost of Attendance for a full-time, degree-seeking student over a nine-month academic year and your estimated costs after applying any grant/scholarship aid. Grants and Scholarships and/or the Loans you accept will be applied in two disbursements as a credit against billed charges on your student account at the beginning of each semester. If this aid is greater than the University of Richmond (UR) charges, you may be eligible for a refund.
