

EDUCATION

University of Illinois in Chicago Law School
Juris Doctor Candidate

Chicago, IL
May 2026

University of Chicago
Bachelor of Arts
Primary Major: Economics with a specialization in Business
Secondary Major: Comparative Human Development

Chicago, IL
June 2022

EXPERIENCE

Hart McLaughlin & Eldridge, LLC
Law Clerk

Chicago, IL
December 2024 - Present

- Conduct legal research and drafting in complex civil litigation matters on the plaintiff side, including personal injury, premises liability, BIPA class actions, Section 1983 claims, and nursing-home negligence cases.
- Prepare detailed medical chronologies, damages summaries, and liability analyses used to evaluate case strength, settlement posture, and litigation risk.
- Assist with discovery drafting, responses, and motion practice, including research on statutes, procedural rules, and controlling Illinois and federal case law.
- Analyze factual records, medical documentation, and witness testimony to identify strengths, weaknesses, and evidentiary gaps relevant to trial preparation.
- Support attorneys through active litigation stages, gaining hands-on experience with case development, expert issues, and trial-readiness considerations.

Chicago Police Department
Police Officer

Chicago, IL
July 2022 - October 2024

- Investigated incidents involving serious bodily injury, use-of-force allegations, and criminal liability, developing a practical understanding of evidentiary standards, witness credibility, and risk exposure.
- Conducted interviews, gathered physical and testimonial evidence, and prepared detailed incident reports relied upon in civil litigation, administrative proceedings, and criminal cases.
- Completed over 900 hours of certified law-enforcement training, including constitutional policing, procedural justice, implicit bias, communication, and decision-making under pressure.
- Earned two honorable mentions during final field-training cycle for effective enforcement actions involving unlawful weapon offenses.

Chicago Commission on Human Relations
Public Service Intern

Chicago, IL
October 2021 - March 2022

- Researched and analyzed proposed legislation and administrative rules affecting civil rights, discrimination, and municipal liability.
- Assisted with investigations of hate crimes and discrimination claims, from intake through administrative hearing preparation.
- Gained exposure to quasi-judicial proceedings, evidentiary standards, and regulatory enforcement frameworks.

SKILLS

Computer: Proficient in Microsoft Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook

Interests: Marketing, Social Media Trends, Labor Laws, Human Rights, McDonald's